

The fires in southern California and the Alum Rock earthquake remind us that disasters can happen at any time. Before another disaster occurs, I urge you to take the time to put together an emergency supply kit and a family emergency plan so that you will be ready when disaster strikes. Ready.gov has excellent advice for preparing for an emergency. Also, I have created a list of several resources concerning the wildfires .